

WEBSTER CITY COMMUNITY THEATRE
BRUCE A. YUNGCLAS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Webster City Community Theatre annually presents a $500 scholarship to a graduate or graduating senior from a Hamilton County school. This scholarship is given in memory of Bruce Alan Yungclas, a long-time member of Webster City Community Theatre who was active on stage, behind the scenes, and made every audience the best.

The applicant must have been active in the theatre arts in his or her high school or community. Preference will be given to applicants who were involved in WCCT productions. The scholarship is non-cumulative, in that if the scholarship is not awarded in any given year, the same $500 scholarship amount will be offered the next year.

Webster City Community Theatre is an organization of theatre amateurs who desire to bring the residents of this community in contact with theatre and enjoy being a part of the theatre world. We offer financial assistance to students who have participated in the theatre arts and who may be interested in receiving further education in that field. However, a theatre arts major is not required to qualify for the scholarship.
